

COMPANY ANNOUNCEMENT

Tangy Management's Victor Feria and Steve Turk Re-Elected as FAVR Southeast Florida Chapter Co-Chairs

Continued chapter leadership reinforces the company's commitment to South Florida's vacation rental and hospitality community.

MIAMI, FLORIDA. Tangy Management announces that Victor Feria and Steve Turk have been re-elected as Co-Chairs of the Southeast Florida Chapter of The Florida Alliance for Vacation Rentals (FAVR). Their re-election continues their service to the region's vacation rental owners, operators, and hospitality professionals.

Feria and Turk bring a combined three decades of luxury hospitality experience to Tangy Management. Their backgrounds in hotels and vacation rentals inform the company's approach to property operations, guest service, and owner support.

FAVR connects Florida's vacation rental owners, managers, and vendors through regional forums, statewide chapters, and an annual conference. The organization also provides industry advocacy and resources for vacation rental operators.

Through their continued chapter involvement, Feria and Turk aim to bring professionals together to share practical knowledge, strengthen relationships, and discuss the challenges and opportunities facing South Florida's vacation rental industry.

About Tangy Management

Tangy Management is a hospitality and property management company based in Miami. The company provides full-service and selected management support for vacation rentals and boutique hotels, including guest communication, pricing strategy, listing and booking-channel management, and operational coordination. Its approach draws on hotel experience to support owners and deliver consistent guest service.

Learn more: tangymgmt.com | FAVR leadership

FAVR
The Voice of Hospitality in the Sunshine State

Proud to serve South Florida.

RE-ELECTED

Southeast Florida Chapter Co-Chairs

VICTOR FERIA

STEVE TURK

Building a stronger vacation rental
& hospitality community.